GABRIEL RE-FORMS FOR TWO LOCAL SHOWS

During the 70's in Seattle bands played 6 nights a week at the same club and played 300 nights year. The top club bands of the era played Top-40 dance songs and disco tunes, and a few bands played their own material. One of those original material bands, Gabriel, managed to pack clubs on both coasts and Canada as well as record three albums in their 11-year course:

"This Star on Every Heel" (ABC Dunhill, circa 1977) which garnered them a Top-10 dance hit in Europe with "I Wish I Were a Star"

"Sweet Release" (ABC Dunhill, circa 1978)

"Gabriel" (Epic/Sweet City, circa 1979) which featured their Billboard charting single "Martha, Your Lovers Come and Go"

The band toured the country opening for major acts in including Toto, Burton Cummings, Wild Cherry, Southside Johnny, Mitch Ryder, "Tower of Power" and "Box Tops" to name a few, and to augment their income, members Terry Lauber, Frank Butorac, Stacy Christenson, Gary Ruhl, and Michael Kinder were found playing on countless recording sessions in Seattle and LA for everything from jingles to award winning soundtracks for film and television.
