The 11th Annual Tacoma Old Town Blues Festival will present more than 15 hours of live entertainment performed by over 20 local and regional blues acts on 7 stages throughout Old Town Tacoma.

Proceeds from our festival help the Breast Cancer Resource Center, a 501C3 non-profit, achieve its goal of improving the quality of life for people touched by breast cancer. The BCRC serves the community with early detection and breast health education programs. The Center also provides breast prostheses, bras, wigs, head coverings, a resource library as well as support and therapy groups and individual counseling for breast cancer survivors and their loved ones. For more information on the BCRC visit www.bcrc.org.
